The Descendants of Hans (Johannus) Klein

THE name KLINE, KLEIN, CLINE, CLYNE, KLYN, etc., are all variations of the same name. It is the German name corresponding to the English "LITTLE" or "SMALL" and as a German name is borne by a great many people. For that reason it is almost impossible to trace families of this name farther back than the emigrant ancestor, and in many cases the identity of the emigrant ancestor is in doubt.

There seems to be no doubt that our family of KLEIN'S was of German or Swiss origin. The early records of the family are in the German language and certain facts relating to its origin in this country point to this as the old country origin.

Our family of KLEIN'S is generally supposed to have originated in the Palatinate, an electorate of the Holy Roman Empire, embracing the Upper Palatinate, now part of Bavaria, and the Lower or Rhine Palatinate, divided chiefly among Bavaria, Hesse, Baden and Prussia. Our emigrant ancestor is supposed to have come to America with Count Zinzendorf, founder of the Moravian Church. He is supposed to have entered by way of Philadelphia.

Another possibility is that he entered through New York and later settled in the Palatine Colony near Herkimer, N. Y. Later he probably came down the Susquehanna River with a group who settled in Berks County, Pennsylvania, where we find records of our ancestor HANS (JOHANNUS) KLEIN (1734-1795).

A large list of KLEIN names appears in a volume entitled "Names of Foreigners Who Took the Oath of Allegiance" (a part of the Pennsylvania Archives, I believe). This lists the males over 16 years of age who landed at Philadelphia from about 1732 to 1774. Our HANS (JOHANNUS) KLEIN or his father may be included in this list.

A list of Palatinates who landed in New York from June, 1710 to September, 1714, and a number who emigrated to England and later to America is shown in MacWeethy's "Book of Names". In this reference our emigrant ancestor may be hidden but he cannot be identified.

The first ancestor of our family of KLEIN of whom we have a definite record is HANS (JOHANNUS) KLEIN (1734-1795), whose descendants are described below:

FIRST GENERATION

1. HANS (JOHANNUS) KLEIN was our first ancestor of whom we have a record. Our relationship to this ancestor can not be proven conclusively by documents, but the facts which are available indicate that he was our ancestor beyond reasonable doubt.

He was born in 1734. The place of his birth is unknown. He died January 16, 1795, at the age of 61, and is buried at the Bern Church in Berks County, Pennsylvania.

He was a farmer near Centreport, Berks County, Pennsylvania.

The name of his first wife is unknown. By this marriage there were four sons, NICHOLAS, JOHN, WERNER and JACOB.

His second wife was named CATHERINE, her maiden name is unknown. By this marriage there were eight children, all of whom are mentioned in CATHERINE'S will.

The probable ancestry of JOHANNUS KLEIN has been discussed earlier in this account. Another version is that he was one of six brothers who emigrated to this country from Europe and settled first in New Jersey. Investigation of the records of the New Jersey KLEIN name fails to show this fact, however.

His will was probated in 1795 in Berks County, Pennsylvania. In it he mentions all of his twelve children.

SECOND GENERATION

2. NICHOLAS KLEIN, (JOHANNUS<sup>1</sup>) was born in 1754 and died at the age of 71 on August 10, 1825, in Upper Bern Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, according to the "READING ADLER". His place of birth is unknown as is the place of his burial. His full name was probably JOHN NICHOLAS KLEIN, as it is shown in this manner in some of the records.

He was married, but the name of his wife is unknown. She was born about 1755 and died about 1805.

He was probably a farmer. The land records of Berks County show a patent issued on November 13, 1766, to SEBASTIAN RUDT, indenture December 5, 1789—JOHN KLEIN and CATHERINE to NICHOLAS KLEIN. This is evidently the transfer or sale of land from JOHN KLEIN to his son NICHOLAS.

He was in Captain Emerick's Company, Berks County, Pennsylvania, Militia, in the War of the Revolution.

He died intestate and letters of administration were granted September 19, 1825, to his son JOSEPH and son JOHN, according to the Administration Book No. 9, page 343, Berks County, Pennsylvania.

He married MARGARET _____, who was born December 12, 1762 and died April 6, 1838. Her death is recorded in the "READING ADLER" which gives her age at the time as 76 years, 3 months and 24 days.

He was a member of John Soder's Company of Bern Township, according to the Pennsylvania Archives, 3rd Series, Vol. 6, pages 283-307.

His will is dated 1824, gives his name as JOHN KLEIN, Bern Township, his wife MARGARET, sons JOSEPH, JOHN and JACOB, and daughters VERONICA, CATHERINE, ELIZABETH, MARGARET, MAGDALENA, ANNA MARIA, SUSANNA, CHRISTINA, EVA and SARAH, and sons-in-law JOHN MIESSE and JOHN DUNDORE. The will was not probated due to some land which was not included in the will.

The will was administered through the Orphans Court.

In Orphans Court held August 5, 1825, JOHN MIESSE, petitioned the court for distribution of the property of JOHN KLEIN, deceased, stating that he was married to CATHERINE, a daughter, and that JOHN KLEIN left a widow, MARGARET, and twelve children, which were listed. ### THIRD GENERATION

7. HENRY KLEIN, (JOHANNUS<sup>1</sup>, NICHOLAS<sup>2</sup>) was born October 7, 1779 and died about

1821. His birth is recorded in the Bible of his brother JOHN as follows:

“HEINRICH KLEIN ist geboren im jahr 1779 den 7 Hornung.”

He married HANNAH SEAMAN, born 1780, daughter of EBERHART SEAMAN.

He was probably a farmer. The records of Berks County, Deed Book No. 29, page 66, show that his father, JOHN NICHOLAS KLEIN, Bern Twp., Berks County, applied to secure the estate of his son, Henry KLEIN and wife, HANNAH (late SEAMAN), daughter of EBERHARD SEAMAN, for his grandchildren, children of his son, HENRY. From this it is inferred that HENRY died prior to the death of his father, NICHOLAS, which latter occurred in 1824 or 1825.

Issue— I—Daughter, born 1800.

II—Son, born 1804.

III—Son, born 1805, died 1815.

He married, first, ELIZABETH RUNKEL, daughter of NICHOLAS RUNKEL, on March 14, 1804. She was born in 1781 and died December 11, 1828. She is buried in Berks County, where she died. There were nine children by this marriage.

He married, second, REBECCA HOLLENBUSCH in 1829. There was one child by this marriage.

He married, third, MAGDALENE WEILER, in Center County, Penna., on April 24, 1832. She was born in 1795. There were four children by this marriage.

He was probably a farmer. The Census records of Center County, Penna., for 1850, show him as a laborer, residing in Potter Township. His family at that time consisted of JOHN KLINE, age 68, MAGDALENA KLINE, aged 55, and LEVI, aged 14.

He was not a soldier in the War of the Revolution as he was too young at the time. His father, NICHOLAS, was a soldier in the Revolution, and his grandfather, JOHANNUS, may have been.

The record of his birth, the births of his brothers, his marriages and the births of his children are all recorded in his Bible. These are all written in German script and language and were probably written by him. The Bible is in the possession of one of his descendants living in the west and the record is on two blank pages in it. This family record was obtained from these pages by MR. JOHN MONTGOMERY KLINE, grandson of JOHN KLEIN, whose record appears in paragraph 15, below:

was born July 16, 1836, in Spring Township, Cen-

He was enrolled from Center County, Penna., August 24, 1863, in Company C, 76th Penna. Volunteers to serve during the War of the Rebellion. He was wounded in the neck near Petersburg, Va., on July 30, 1864, and was honorably discharged from the Army at Fort Monroe, Va., on July 8, 1865, on a surgeon's certificate of disability. His military records show that he had brown hair, grey eyes, was 5 feet 11 inches tall, and was light complexioned. His wound never entirely healed, and probably contributed to his early death at the age of 47. In later years he wore a full beard to conceal this wound. In 1864 or 1865 he settled his family on a farm in Mercer County, on the road between Carlton and Milledgeville.
